

BETHABARA MORAVIAN CHURCH NEAR WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Bethabara Moravian Church was built in 1788 by the congregation which had founded the village in 1753 as the first settlement in a large tract of land owned by the Moravian Church. Bethabara, more generally known today as Old Town, is about seven miles north of Winston-Salem, N. C., and its old church building is still in use.

Came down here for the Easter holidays Enjoyed it very much. Nice warm
